

Hangzhou IX Media Co., Ltd.

As a global distribution company, Hangzhou IX Media Co., Ltd. is engaged in domestic and overseas distribution of Chinese contents, introduction of overseas contents to China, investment and financing of film and TV series, etc. We provide production companies who are intending to develop domestic and overseas markets with diversified and full-link distribution solutions, empower traditional copyright transactions with digital marketing methods and advanced technologies, create international supply chain of high-quality film and television contents, and promote the trading of global contents.

IX Media has more than 200 overseas full-media channels for end-users, covering the mature markets for marketing of Chinese contents, such as Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan in China, as well as Japan, South Korea and ten ASEAN countries represented by Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand and Indonesia, and reaching new markets, such as Mongolia, Russia, Eastern Europe, Africa and Pan-American region, etc.

IX Media has always maintained the pioneering and enterprising spirit to make breakthroughs in both Chinese and overseas markets. We adhere to the international marketing strategy and actively make exchanges with global counterparts. Accordingly, we participate in nearly 20 mainstream international film festivals every year to constantly expand our new contacts with overseas users, and win unanimous recognition from customers with our high-quality professional services.

Eunice Liu

International Distribution Specialist
Mob:86-18382090940
E-mail: eunice.l@ixmediahz.com

The Magic Women

TV Series
45mins*20eps

The story of two single mothers, Su Fei and An Ning, who have very different personalities but who band together because of the breakdown in their families. Informing their alliance to fight back, they work together to heal their emotional pain and unlock new lives.

One is a domineering female CEO while the other is an attractive and tough single mother. After being betrayed by men, they help each other and fight the womanizers together! A storyline with two heroines, a warm theme of "girls help girls", complex love stories, and a plot that immerses the audience in the emotional interaction among girls!

"Women's life shouldn't be defined!" With this idea, this female urban drama provides a new way of living for women in broken love from "Her Perspective". It shows the unique charm of modern women and strikes a chord with the audience. An independent woman can also enjoy a free and beautiful life.

With cliffhangers, conflicts escalated step by step, intricate character relationships, and hot elements including love, suspense, social issues, and marriage, this play is to be super topical! Mature woman VS Arrogant mean man, Cold single mom VS Warm innocent lad, and Sweet princess VS Weird IT guy. In the dramatic tension of the three couples between contrasting characters, each role is vividly interpreted!

The Investigator

TV Series
45mins*49eps

<The Investigator> adapted from the "The eye of Wall Street", the best writer of Chinese business mystery & suspense novel, Mr. Yongcheng's novel series "The Secret Investigator" (douban.com score 8.2). A story about risk management follows a team of investigators who work together to eliminate fraud. Xia Dong who works as an investigator for a global company that specializes in risk management has always considered professional ethics to be his life's mission. To complete a job that was assigned to him and to uncover the truth behind an incident that got him framed while studying abroad, Xia Dong transfers from the US headquarters to the Shanghai branch. In his new office, he encounters Jian Yan, his junior at school who now works as an investigator.

In the following days and nights, Xia Dong's righteousness and kindness shine through and easily help in resolving the misunderstandings from the past. Soon after, Xia Dong and Jian Yan are conducting a background check on a company and find themselves facing repeated threats on their life after they helped Lin Jun Wen, an old classmate, and got caught in their family disputes. No matter the crisis, Xia Dong and Jian Yan continue to uphold their ideals and protect corporate integrity.