The arrogant son of Kong-sang Shiyang and the enthusiastic and righteous red clan princess Zhu Yan had been predicted to have a tragic fate because of the kindness of a flower. However, they have been together as a master and apprentice for three years. Guixie rises and Kongsang is about to die. Shiyang mistakenly believes that Zhiyuan, who grew up with Zhu Yan, is the Sea Emperor, so he sealed Zhiyuan. In the end, Zhu Yan pierced the Jade Bone Spur to Shi Ying as predicted. Nevertheless, fate changed as early as the day it was spied on.

In 2005, there was an abnormal disturbance in the basic sciences of the earth. For a time, the scientific community was fluttering and panicking: Scientists who commit suicide bizarrely, countdowns to miracles, secretly organized "Science Boundaries", mysterious "Three-Body" game, etc. Nanoscientist Wang Miao was taken to the joint operations centre and infiltrated the "Science Frontier" to investigate. In the mist, Wang Miao came into contact with an organization called ETO and found that its commander was Ye Wenjie, the mother of the suicide scientist Yang Dong. With the constant gambling between ETO and the combat centre, Wang Miao and Shi Qiang gradually determined that the world really exists in the "Three-Body" game. The origin of all events is the desperate struggle of two civilizations to survive. With the joint efforts of the Joint Operations Center and scientists, Wang Miao, Shi Qiang and others strengthened their convictions and rekindled hope, leading everyone to continue their preparations for a desperate struggle against the Trisolaran who is about to invade in the future.
