

SHENZHEN TENCENT COMPUTER SYSTEMS COMPANY LIMITED

Tencent Video is a leading online video platform in China with extensive premium content and professional media operation capabilities. With comprehensive video content, including popular movies, drama series, entertainment shows, sports, and news, Tencent Video provides smooth HD video experiences to users over PC, mobile and Network Television. Today, Tencent Video serves over 200 million users each day and provides a variety of VIP services to over 100 million paying members.

Since its establishment, Tencent Video has continuously incubated high-quality original content, and developed a content ecosystem of blockbusters and niche programmes. Tencent Video has invested heavily in the upstream of the industry, cooperates with excellent industry partners to create more positive, high-quality and innovative works, building an entire industrial chain of film and television works with intellectual properties.

Now Tencent Video has a great track record in the development of the entire content industry chain. It has self-produced a number of top-level dramas, such as "A Dream Of Splendor", "Love Like The Galaxy", "Crime Breakdown", "The Oath Of Love" and a number of high-quality self-produced variety shows, such as Creation Series, The Heart Signal series and the Roast series. In the animation area, it comprised of The King's Avatar, Sky, Fights Break Sphere, Douro Mainland and Master Devil. In the documentary section, it has been focusing on creating high-quality original content and has launched the Once Upon a Bite food series. As to the big screen, Tencent Video has invested in more than 20 movies such as Monster Hunt, Goodbye Mr. Loser, The Monkey King 2 and Cold War 2 with a total box office of more than 11 billion yuan.

Tencent Video is committed to upholding their slogan, "Enjoy Great Moments", and will continue to leverage their platform advantages, and enlighten users with great content and experiences.

