House Has A Short-Leg

Animated series

(Comedy / Light-hearted / Warm / Accompany)

50eps x 3.5mins

The funny and healing life of one person, one dog, and one family.

YUMMY, a little girl from an ordinary family, lives in Aifay Community.

However, a dog disturbs her peaceful life. The corgi MOCO doesn't know where he came from and seems to be born with no idea what sorrow is.

Anyone who sees him will be melted by his happy-looking dog face, except Yummy. When she learns that MOCO is going to live with her, she gets very, very upset! How can she take care of a dog while she is care-free? However, no matter what she thinks, MOCO is determined to be Yummy's pet dog.

Peace, however, is hard to come by. Much of everyday life is filled with petty worries. Let's enjoy the joyful and happy life of the Aifay community.

MOCO in Dreamland

Animated series

(Entertainment / Fantasy / Family)

26eps x 7mins

Yummy is a 7-year-old girl. MOCO, the corgi, is her best playmate. One night, when she fell asleep, she enters a magic world, Hululu wonderland. Here, the fairy tales come alive! Together, Yummy and MOCO start their amazing adventures.

The Black Queen in Hululu hates them and determines to banish them. However, Yummy is very kind and smart. She always manages to get out from the trap and even become friends with the troops. As the adventure goes on, Yummy finds out that the Queen is not that bad and their relationship is growing in an interesting way...

The show focus on the parent-child relationship and self-recognition, aiming to encourage kids to embrace diversity and setbacks. The story conveys the core value of kindness, courage, cooperation and inspires the children's dynamic creativity through the wonderland design.
