GEN Z

Contemporary, Romance
45min*40eps

Toutou Sun (Lusi Zhao) is an orphan in her twenties. One day, she gets into trouble while fighting injustice. Xinzheng Ren (Gang Wu), a professor at the University of Chinese Medicine, comes to her aid and learns her life story. Professor Ren accepts her into his TCM (Traditional Chinese Medicine) course to give her a fresh start in life. Toutou accepts his challenge and studies under him. Professor Ren's son, Tianzhen (Yizhou Luo), is a classmate she dislikes for causing her a lot of trouble. Despite the already challenging material, there is also an age gap between Professor Ren and his students, and the friction between the students themselves coming from different backgrounds that make the course even more difficult. As Toutou and Tianzhen persist through time and adversity, they start to understand each other and become closer. Toutou eventually inherits Professor Ren's TCM practice. She, Tianzhen, and her classmates have now begun to pursue their dreams.

Mr. & Mrs. Chen

Spy, Romance
45min*40eps

Jiaping Chen (Dongjun Han) and Shuangtao Zuo (Xiaotong Guan) used to be a sweet couple until the Sino-Japanese War changes everything. Chen leaves Zuo without saying goodbye when he receives an emergency task to resist Japan's invasion. Zuo, on the other hand, has no time to be sad as she also takes part in saving the nation. Her success in her job is highly recognized by the military command, for which she is asked to become one of the spies. In 1940, Chen and Zuo encounter each other in Shanghai during their separate yet same assassination mission without knowing what the other is there for. In times of crisis, they pretend to be a couple and then get married to hide their identities. As they progress in their respective tasks, their doubts in the other's real identity also grow. Now the life with frenemy begins...
